

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
January 12, 2010

February is Annual Breast Cancer Support Month at Amedeo's North Italian Restaurant.
Memory Candles, Wrist Band sales, memory seed packets as well as percent of food sales will benefit the Pretty in Pink Cancer Foundation

Raleigh, NC: Amedeo's North's owners, Rick and Lisa DeAngelis began a partnership with the Pretty in Pink Foundation last year and have made February Breast Cancer Awareness at their north Raleigh restaurant – in honor and memory of Rick's mother, Betty DeAngelis.

The restaurant is located in the Northridge Shopping Center, at 6006 Falls of Neuse Road, near Spring Forest Road in North Raleigh.

On Tuesdays during the month of February a percent of sales will be donated to Pretty in Pink. On the kick-off Tuesday February 2nd, the Painted Ponies Y Princess Tribe will be selling Pretty in Pink wrist bracelets, packets of herb seeds, and Memory Candle Tea Lights – people are welcome to purchase a Memory Candle in honor of a loved one, in memoriam or as a survivor. Lit candles with names written in pink will be displayed in restaurant. All proceeds go to Pretty in Pink Foundation.

In addition there will be a featured “pink” item each Tuesday- 2/9 Mini desserts special; 2/16 Special entree w/Pink sauce; 2/23: Betty's Birthday Cake

Customers can register throughout February to win prizes; the drawing for prizes will be held on Monday 3/1 to remember Betty and celebrate her birthday.

Pretty In Pink Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides financial resources for uninsured and underinsured North Carolinians who are diagnosed with breast cancer and have limited financial means. Founded in 2004 by Dr. Lisa Tolnitch, a breast cancer surgeon, Pretty In Pink Foundation is positioned to have a point of presence in every state by 2020. Committed to providing hope, health and healing, Pretty In Pink Foundation has a growing network of healthcare professionals and quality of life partners.
